Pat Tomasulo is a Chicago-based stand-up comedian, TV host, actor and podcaster. One of the top headlining acts in Chicago, his very first one-hour comedy special, "What A Time To Be Alive," was released in 2022. You can also see and hear him weekly on "The Pat Tomasulo Podcast," one of the highest-charting podcasts on Apple's "Stand-Up Comedy" podcast rankings. And if you live in the Chicagoland area, you can see Pat every morning as one of the hosts of the WGN Morning News, the highest-rated AM news program in Chicago for over 10 years running. Other TV credits include guest host and contributor to "LIVE! With Regis and Kelly," and co-host of "Shaq Vs," an ABC primetime reality show featuring basketball superstar Shaquille O'Neal. Pat is also the creator and host of "Laugh Your Face Off," an annual comedy benefit that has raised over $2.6M for The Facial Pain Research Foundation, a group that funds research to cure trigeminal neuralgia, a rare pain condition his wife, Amy, suffers from. Pat Consistently sells out his shows throughout the year! His 2024 Uptown Social Show was a sellout! Don't miss Pat's Return to Uptown!
